

Remark: \mathbb{P}^n is covered by a finite # of open covers
M

Since \mathbb{P}^n & M are compact.

For each pair of open covering elements of \mathbb{P}^n & M,

\exists a corresponding generic divisors.

Since # of pairs is finite,

\cap (set of generic divisors corresponding to a pair) is again generic.